

February 9, 1937

Ray Whitcomb, president, called the meeting to order. Minutes of the last meeting were read and corrected.

Suggestions of Duval and Wilson for improving the minutes were discussed.

There was a discussion of plans and expenses for Aber Day to be held during Spring quarter.

Shaw made the motion that Central Board recommend the appointment of Clifford Olson as manager of Aber Day for this year. Carmody made the second. The motion was unanimously carried. Olson is to be informed of his appointment by letter.

There was discussion on the method in which student elections have been held in the past, and suggestions for changes were made. The constitutional revision will be undertaken at the next meeting.

Publications Board not having met since February 2, there was no report from that group.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
